The mark is a motion mark lasting about 8 seconds, as shown in the accompanying video file, in the colours dark green and bright mint green. It consists of: (i) a plain dark green screen. Thin bright mint green vertical lines then appear across it in two horizontal rows, one above the other; (ii) the lines quickly widen into rectangular bars of different widths, forming a full-screen pattern in two rows, like a checkerboard. For about 5 seconds the bars keep widening, narrowing and moving sideways, so the pattern constantly shifts; (iii) the pattern then shrinks towards the centre of the screen and settles into a fixed logo. The logo is made of mint green rectangular bars of different widths in two offset rows: a large block in the middle of the top row, flanked by narrow bars, and wider blocks with narrow bars in the bottom row; (iv) the words “Stream Money” appear beneath the logo, rising into place one word after the other in mint green sans-serif lettering. The finished logo and words stay on the dark green background until the end.
