

ORDER under the Companies Act 2006

In the matter of application No 105

by Kenwood Limited & Kenwood Appliances Luxembourg SA

For a change of company name of registration

No 05628965

DECISION

The company name KENWOOD ELECTRIC LIMITED has been registered since 18 November 2005.

By an application filed on 18 September 2009, Kenwood Limited & Kenwood Appliances Luxembourg SA jointly applied for a change of name of this registration under the provisions of section 69(1)(b) of the Companies Act 2006 (the Act).

A copy of this application was sent to the primary respondent's registered office on 15 October 2009, in accordance with rule 3(2) of the Company Names Adjudicator Rules 2008.

The primary respondent did not file a defence within the two month period specified by the adjudicator under rule 3(3). Rule 3(4) states

“The primary respondent, before the end of that period, shall file a counter-statement on the appropriate form, otherwise the adjudicator may treat it as not opposing the application and may make an order under section 73(1).”

Under the provisions of this rule, the adjudicator may exercise discretion so as to treat the respondent as opposing the application. In this case I can see no reason to exercise such discretion and, therefore, decline to do so.

As the primary respondent has not responded to the allegations made, it is treated as not opposing the application. Therefore, in accordance with section 73(1) of the Act I make the following order:

- (a) KENWOOD ELECTRIC LIMITED shall change its name within one month of the date of this order to one that is not an offending name<sup>i</sup>;
- (b) KENWOOD ELECTRIC LIMITED shall:
  - (i) take such steps as are within its power to make, or facilitate the making, of that change;

(ii) not cause or permit any steps to be taken calculated to result in another company being registered with a name that is an offending name.

If no such change is made within one month of the date of this order, I will determine a new company name as per section 73(4) of the Act and will give notice of that change under section 73(5) of the Act.

Kenwood Limited and Kenwood Appliances Luxembourg SA having been successful are entitled to a contribution towards their costs. I order KENWOOD ELECTRIC LIMITED to pay Kenwood Limited and Kenwood Appliances Luxembourg SA costs on the following basis:

|                      |      |
|----------------------|------|
| Fee for application: | £400 |
| Statement of case:   | £300 |
| Total:               | £700 |

This sum is to be paid within seven days of the expiry of the appeal period or within seven days of the final determination of this case if any appeal against this decision is unsuccessful.

Any notice of appeal against this decision to order a change of name must be given within one month of the date of this order. Appeal is to the High Court in England, Wales and Northern Ireland and to the Court of Session in Scotland.

The company adjudicator must be advised if an appeal is lodged, so that implementation of the order is suspended.

Dated this 13 day of January 2010

<sup>i</sup>An “offending name” means a name that, by reason of its similarity to the name associated with the applicant in which he claims goodwill, would be likely— to be the subject of a direction under section 67 (power of Secretary of State to direct change of name), or to give rise to a further application under section 69.
