

ORDER under the Companies Act 2006

In the matter of application No 157

by The Capita Group Plc

for a change of the company name of registration

No 06869390

DECISION

The company name Capita Construction (UK) Ltd has been registered, consequent upon a change of name, since 1 December 2009 under number 06869390.

By an application filed on 8 February 2010, The Capita Group Plc applied for a change of name of this registration under the provisions of section 69(1)(b) of the Companies Act 2006 (the Act).

A copy of this application was sent to the primary respondent's registered office on 3 March 2010, in accordance with rule 3(2) of the Company Names Adjudicator Rules 2008.

The primary respondent did not file a defence within the 2 month period specified by the adjudicator under rule 3(3). Rule 3(4) states

“The primary respondent, before the end of that period, shall file a counter-statement on the appropriate form, otherwise the adjudicator may treat it as not opposing the application and may make an order under section 73(1).”

Under the provisions of this rule, the adjudicator may exercise discretion so as to treat the respondent as opposing the application. In this case I can see no reason to exercise such discretion and, therefore, decline to do so.

As the primary respondent has not responded to the allegations made, it is treated as not opposing the application. Therefore, in accordance with section 73(1) of the Act I make the following order:

- (a) Capita Construction (UK) Ltd shall change its name within one month of the date of this order to one that is not an offending name¹;
- (b) Capita Construction (UK) Ltd shall:
 - (i) take such steps as are within its power to make, or facilitate the making, of that change;

(ii) not cause or permit any steps to be taken calculated to result in another company being registered with a name that is an offending name.

If no such change is made within one month of the date of this order, I will determine a new company name as per section 73(4) of the Act and will give notice of that change under section 73(5) of the Act.

The Capita Group Plc, having been successful, is entitled to a contribution towards its costs. I order Capita Construction (UK) Ltd to pay The Capita Group Plc costs on the following basis:

|----------------------|------|
| Fee for application: | £400 |
| Statement of case: | £300 |
| Total: | £700 |

This sum is to be paid within seven days of the expiry of the appeal period or within seven days of the final determination of this case if any appeal against this decision is unsuccessful.

Any notice of appeal against this decision to order a change of name must be given within one month of the date of this order. Appeal is to the High Court in England, Wales and Northern Ireland and to the Court of Session in Scotland.

The company adjudicator must be advised if an appeal is lodged, so that implementation of the order is suspended.

Dated this day of 21 June 2010

ⁱAn “offending name” means a name that, by reason of its similarity to the name associated with the applicant in which he claims goodwill, would be likely— to be the subject of a direction under section 67 (power of Secretary of State to direct change of name), or to give rise to a further application under section 69.
