The mark consists of a circular emblem featuring a stylised torch at its centre. A single stylised oak leaf appears in green, positioned at the top of the torch where a traditional flame would typically be found. The oak leaf has multiple visible lobes and is vertically oriented within the upper portion of the circle. A circular ring outlines the emblem, forming a complete enclosure around the torch and leaf. The base of the torch extends slightly below the lower edge of the ring. Beneath the emblem appear the words "The Legacy & Leadership Institute", arranged in three lines. The first line reads "The Legacy", the second line reads "& Leadership", and the third line reads "Institute". The ampersand is stylised. The background of the mark is plain.

The mark consists of a stylised square emblem bearing the words 'SPRATTS PATENT' in capital letters, arranged above and below a pair of decorative crossed strokes at the centre, which resemble curved ribbons intersecting over a small central circular node. The interior background features ornamental symbols including dots, crown-like marks, chevrons, and circular shapes. Around the perimeter of the design appears the phrase 'NONE ARE GENUINE UNLESS SO STAMPED.' in a stylised arrangement. The mark is presented in black and white and evokes the appearance of a historic biscuit seal from the Victorian era.
