The mark is a multimedia mark of about 9.8 seconds, combining moving images and sound, as shown in the accompanying MP4 file. It shows the following sequence: 0–0.5 s: The frame is a plain, solid dark green. 0.5–1.2 s: Thin light-green outlines of rectangles of different widths appear. They form a grid of two horizontal rows that fills the frame. 1.2–1.5 s: The rectangles fill with colour, brightening from mid-green to bright mint green. Alternate rectangles stay dark green, so the two rows form an irregular checkerboard of bright green and dark green blocks of different widths. 1.5–5.0 s: The blocks move continuously, sliding sideways and widening or narrowing. The checkerboard pattern keeps changing, with thin and wide vertical bars alternating. 5.0–6.0 s: The pattern shrinks towards the centre of the frame and turns into a stylised letter "M" made of bright green vertical bars and blocks on a dark green background. 6.0–9.8 s: The words "Stream Money" rise into view in bright green below the "M". The finished logo stays still in the centre of the dark green frame until the end. Sound: A sound plays from the start. It gets louder as the logo forms at about 5.5–6 seconds and then fades to silence. The sound is a rhythmic electronic synthesised tone that rises to a chime as the logo appears. Colours claimed: Dark green (#032D0C) and bright mint green (#52FF9F).
